

PGY2 Internal Medicine Pharmacy Residency

July Orientation*	July - June Rotations & Electives	December Research & Manuscript	January - June Rotations & Electives
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Residency Orientation -Hospital Orientation -Computer Orientation -Hospital Pharmacy Practice Orientation -BLS/ACLS (if certification not current) 	Required Rotations (one month each) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Internal Medicine – GI -Internal Medicine – Pulmonary -Internal Medicine – UTH -Medicine/Trauma Step-Down -Critical Care Selective – Critical Care Medicine or Cardiovascular Critical Care -Infectious Diseases 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -ASHP Midyear -Research Project -Longitudinal projects/experiences 	Electives (one month each) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Academia Elective -Acute Care Cardiology -Acute Care Neurology -Ambulatory Care Heart Failure Clinic -Ambulatory Care Outpatient Family Medicine Elective -Ambulatory Care Heart Failure -Cardiovascular Critical Care -Critical Care Evening Shift -Critical Care Medicine -Emergency Medicine Day Shift -Emergency Medicine Evening Shift (7 on/7 off schedule) -Family Medicine Inpatient -Geriatrics -Hematology/Oncology -Nephrology -Neurocritical Care -Night Shift Medicine (7 on/7 off schedule) -Pain Management -Pharmacy Informatics -Practice Management -Renal Transplant
Required Longitudinal Experiences (year-long) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Academia Longitudinal (meets quarterly and as needed for teaching activities) -Ambulatory Care Outpatient Family Medicine Longitudinal (in clinic every other Thursday) -Clinical Drug Policy (project-based) -Hospital Pharmacy Practice (staffing two 8 hour shifts every third weekend & selected holidays – includes 8 hour ACLS response once per 1-2 weeks) -Teaching Certificate Program (if not completed as a PGY1 resident) -Research and Manuscript (project-based)

*Full month of Orientation not required if resident is a previous PGY1 resident at UTMC. In this case, a required learning experience will be substituted.

The residency program structure is subject to change based on the changing practice needs of the institution